THE WASHINGTON TIMES

The President, who usually attends the game, functioning as Commander-in-Chief of both the his time between the Army and the Navy sides, will be among the missing this time. Mrs. Harding, according to General Sawyer, is mending steadily, but President Harding doesn't yet feel that he can leave her. Vice President Coolidge will, however, serve as the President deputy; and I assume that he and Mrs. Coolidge will root impartially for both the Army and the Navy. William Whiting, of Holyoke, Mass., who will be in Philadelphia on Saturday, will be the guest of Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge at the game.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks will head the Army con-tingent at the game and the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Denby will root for the Navy team. Secretary and Mrs. Weeks expect to spend the week-end in Philadelphia and will entertain a party in their box for the historic

SECRETARY and Mrs. Weeks will have their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Washington Davidge, with them, and the Secretary's aide, Major J. M. Wright. They will stay at the Bellevue-Stratford over Sunday. With the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. J. May-hew Wainwright will be Miss Fonrose Wainwright, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Andre W. Brewster, Solicitor General James M. Beck, Capt. Georges Thenault, of the French embassy, and Parker Gilbert, Undersecretary of the Treas-

General Pershing entertained a party of Philadelphians in his box, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury, Mr. and Mrs. George McFadden, Dr. Rob-ert Owens, William Eglin and Col. and Mrs. George C. Marshall, Colonel Marshall being the general's aide. Major John G. Quekemeyer, also aide to General Pershing, will attend the game, but not in the general's party. He is going up with two of his brothers and will meet a third, who is a cadet at the Military Academy. The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Denby will be guests of Col. and Mrs. David W. Porter at the League Island navy yard over the week end, and will have Colonel and Mrs. Porter with them in their box at the game. Other guests will be Miss Ade-laide Canfield, who is visiting Secretary and Mrs. Denby; Edwin Denby, jr.—just of an age to thrill over such a spectacle as tomorrow's game; Lieut. Comdr. L. F. Thibault and Lieut. Comdr. Frederick Ceres. Before the game the Denbys and their party will attend the luncheon which Rear Admiral Nulton, commandant of
